THE MURMURMONTIS :: NINETEEN THIRTY FOUR

The Old Tavern Door

Alma Mater of the Mountains, West Virginia Wesleyan
At thy magic mystic fountains noblest dreams of life began,
We, thy children, bow before thee;
We, thy children, now adore thee,
And pledge God, Who watches o'er thee,
Thou shalt fill the ample measures of His plan.

Alma Mater, Queen of Learning, of the Orange and the Black,
At thy call to wisdom turning nought of worth thy sons shall lack.
For the teaching of thy sages,
With the writ of sacred pages,
Shall transmit the wealth of ages,
Down the future's ever-wider, brighter track.
Alma Mater of the Highlands, guardian of romantic years,

Thou dost bring us to the skylands, with thy faith dispel our fears,
Give us friendship waning never,
And a call to high endeavor,
And companionship forever,
With God who guides the courses of the spheres.
Alma Mater of the Mountains, West Virginia Wesleyan,

At thy magic mystic fountains noblest dreams of life began,
We, thy children, bow before thee;
We, thy children, now adore thee,
And pledge God, Who watches o'er thee,
Thou shalt fill ample measures of His plan.

—WALLACE B. FLEMING.

*"A good book is the best of friends,
the same today and forever."*

—Tupper.

THE 1934 MURMURMONTIS

VOLUME XXX

PUBLISHED BY THE

WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN COLLEGE
BUCKHANNON, WEST VIRGINIA

"A cheerful temper joined with innocence will make beauty attractive, knowledge delightful, and wit good natured."

—Addison.

DR. HOMER ETHLAN WARK, PH. D.

"Reason is the life of the law; nay the common law itself is nothing else but Reason. The law which is the Perfection of Reason."

—Coke.

DEDICATION

TO

HOMER ETHAN WARK, Ph. D.
WHO HAS GAINED OUR PROFOUND RE-SPECT AND GRATITUDE FOR HIS SERV-ICES TO WESLYAN, AND WHO HAS BY HIS ABILITY AND CHARACTER EN-DEARED HIMSELF TO US WHILE HE SERVED AS PRESIDENT OF OUR COLLEGE.

*"Let those who never erred
forget His worth, in vain bemoanings."*

—Whittier.

F O R E W O R D

IF IN THE YEARS TO COME WHEN WE HAVE BECOME OLD FASHIONED, SOME OLD "GRAD" WHO IS PICTURED HEREIN SHALL DERIVE PLEASURE FROM LOOKING THROUGH THIS BOOK; IF WHEN OUR EYES HAVE GROWN DIM, SOME OF US SHALL LOOK AT A PICTURE HERE AND BY THAT REMEMBER A FORGOTTEN FRIEND OR ADVENTURE; IF THIS "MURMURMONTIS" SHALL BRING MEMORIES OF WESLEYAN TO ONE WHOSE MEMORIES HAVE FADED; IF WHEN WE ARE THE PASSING INSTEAD OF THE COMING GENERATION, THIS SOUVENIR SHALL BRING A SMILE TO THE LIPS OR A TEAR TO THE EYE OF SOME AGED WESLEYANITE, THEN INDEED SHALL GOD HAVE BLESSED THE EFFORTS OF THIS STAFF.

*"The reward of one's duty is to fulfill another."
—Eliot.*

In the greenest of our valleys
By good angels tenanted,
Once a fair and stately palace—
 ace—

 Radiant palace—reared its head.

In the monarch Thought's dominion—

It stood there!

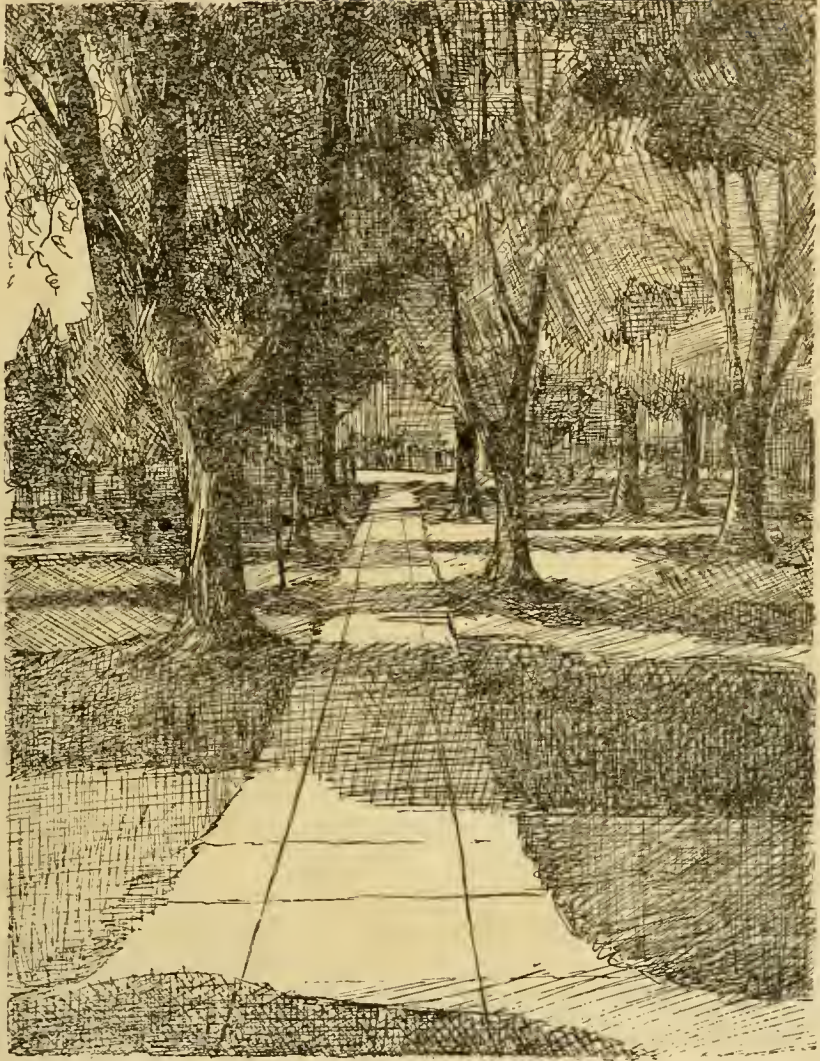

Never seraph spread a pinion
Over fabric half so fair!

—POE.

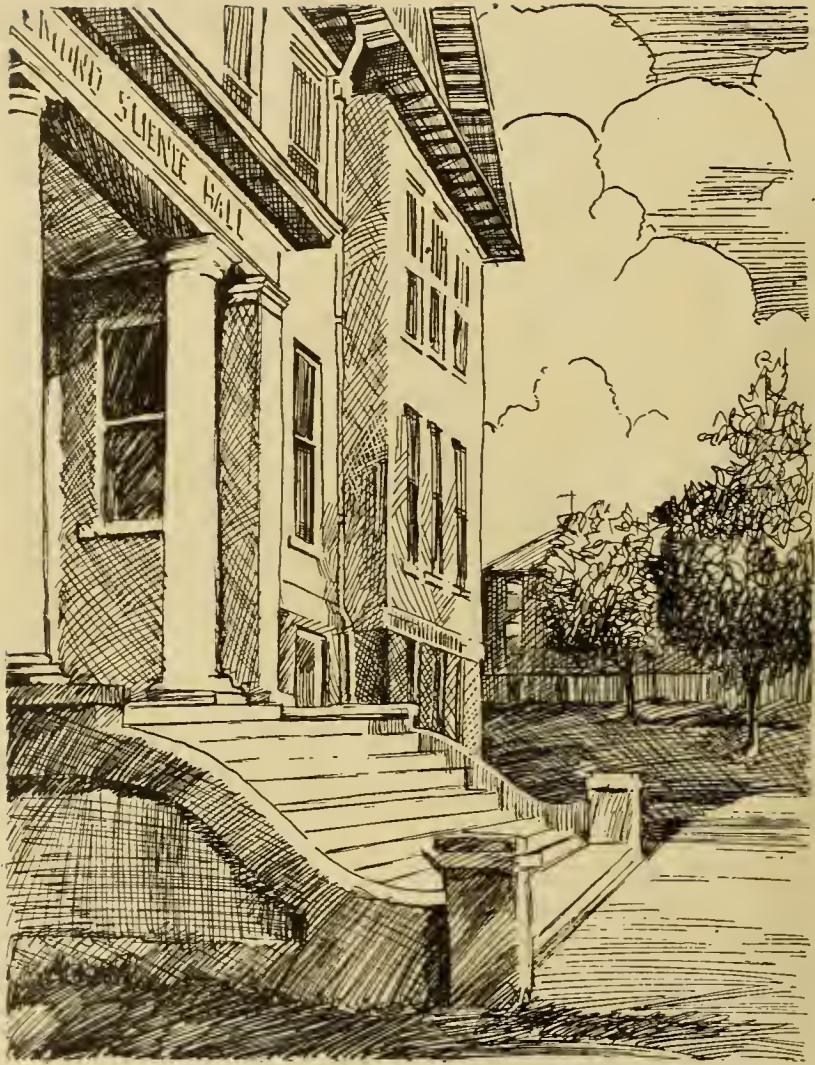

THE CAMPUS

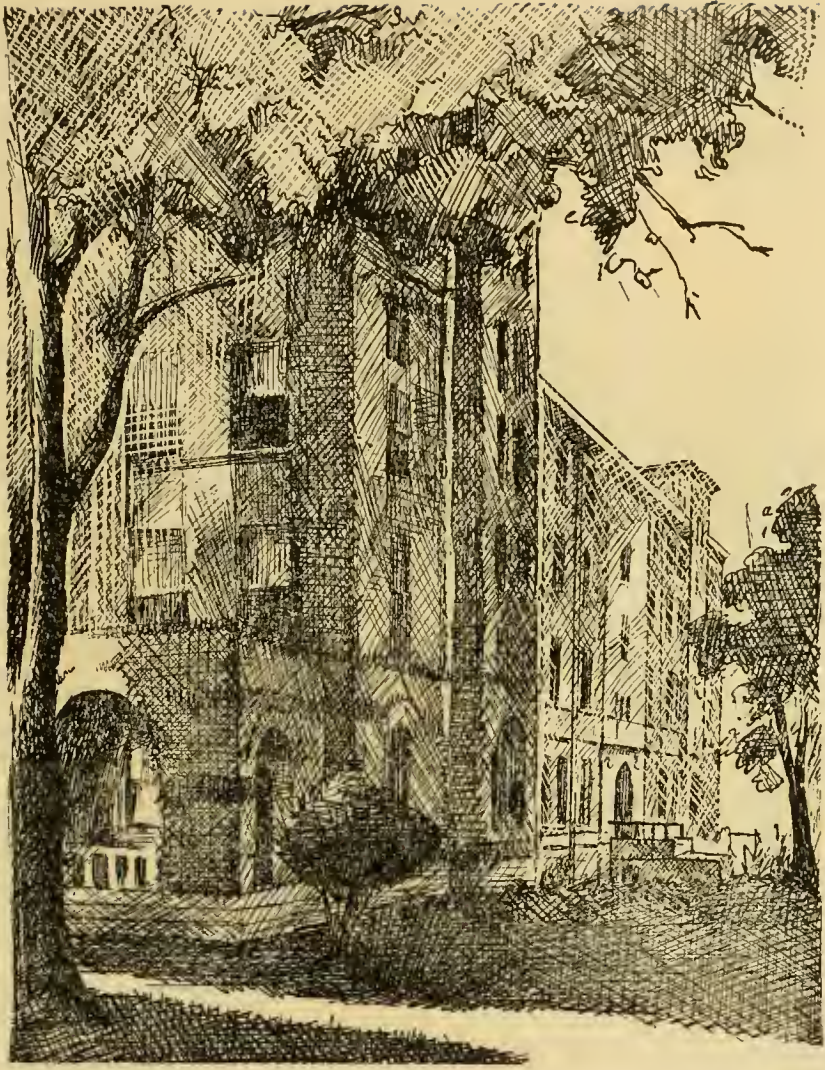

*The Administration and Chapel
Building as seen from College Avenue.*

the entrance of the Ad. Building.*

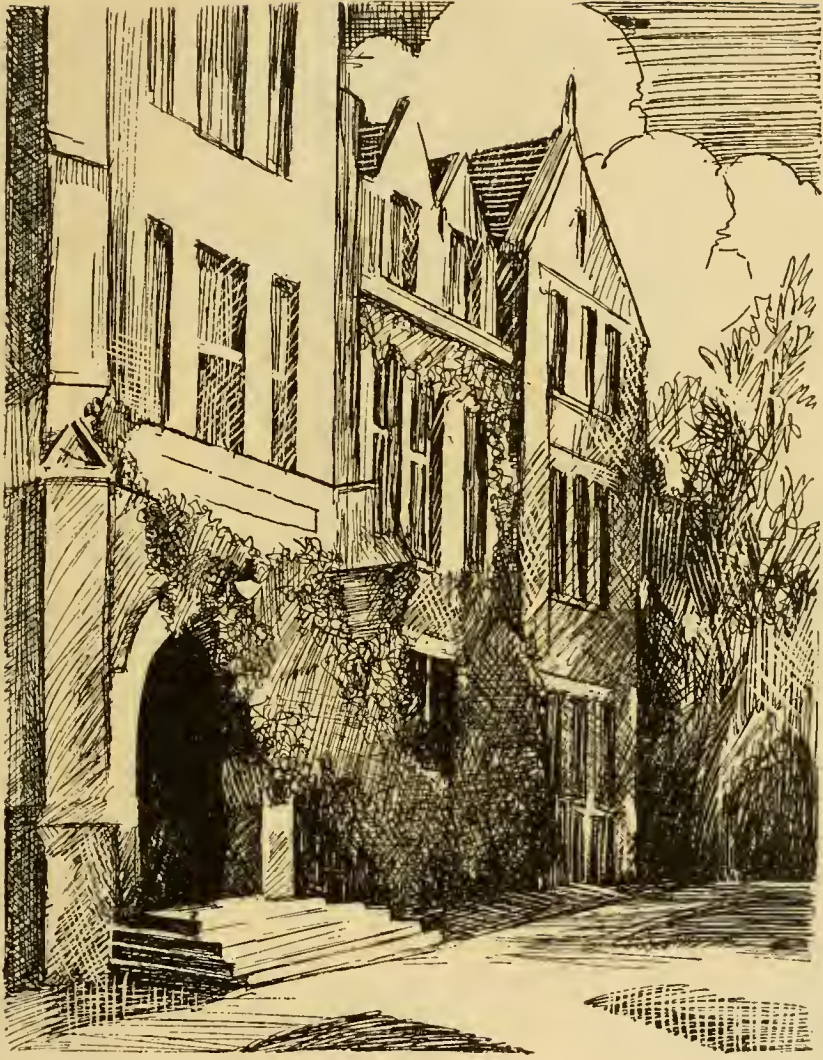

Entrance to Haymond Science Hall. Dedicated to the discovery and development of scientific talent.

Agnes Howard Hall—Wesleyan's luxurious dormitory for young women.

Entrance to the Gymnasium where Wesleyanites develop physical strength and skill.

Another view of the Ad. Building showing the front entrance.

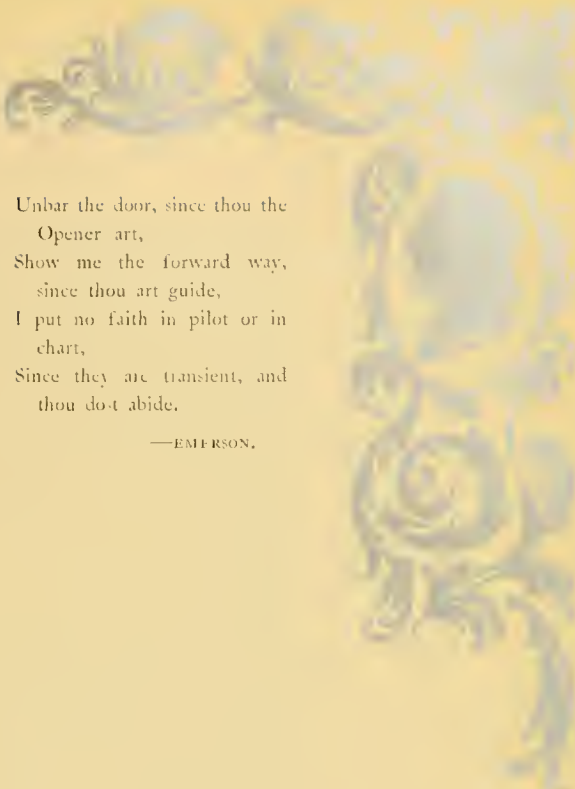

Thus is Wesleyan ideally situated on a beautiful campus. Her well-kept buildings; long, shaded walks; expansive, green terraces all aid in creating that traditional Wesleyan Spirit.

Let us look further into this Alma Mater of the Mountains.

S C H O O L

Unbar the door, since thou the Opener art,
Show me the forward way,
since thou art guide,
I put no faith in pilot or in chart,
Since they are transient, and thou dost abide.

—EMERSON.

Go up and on! thy day well
done,
Its morning promise well
fulfilled,
Arise to triumphs yet unwon,
To holier tasks that God has willed.

Go, leave behind thee all that mars
The work below of man for man;
With the white legions of the stars
Do service such as angels can!

"CEBE" ROSS

Wesleyan is fortunate in having at the head of her athletic department such a versatile man as "Cebe" Ross. To him fall the tasks of football coach, basketball coach, baseball coach, and director of athletics. His ability is evidenced by the good records of Wesleyan's athletic teams and the excellent schedules that he always procures. "Cebe's" ability and personality have made him one of the most popular coaches in the history of the school. Perhaps one reason that he works so hard for Wesleyan is that Wesleyan is his Alma Mater. They are for each other—Wesleyan and "Cebe".

* * * *

Paul Watson had a difficult task and did it well as coach of the Freshman football team. He, too, is a Wesleyan alumnus.

* * * *

The duties of a student manager are many, difficult, very necessary, but not spectacular and, therefore, not adequately appreciated. The student managers for football were Jerry Debarr, Jim Furbee and Paul Rogerson; for basketball, they were Jack Rafeld, Sherman West, and Jockey Dean.

Wesleyan Loses Opening Game to Presidents, 20-0

ORVAL EDMUNDSON

"Tubby" was one of the best, if not the best, centers who has ever played for Wesleyan. He was light and full of a fine fighting spirit. He graduates this year. Luck to you, "Tub".

HARRY SPEARS

Wesleyan had an abundance of good ends in '12. Prominent in that supply was Harry Spears. "Spearsy" is built for his position. His speed in getting down under punts saved the Bobcats many yards. He is a Junior this year.

The Wesleyan Bobcats, presenting a rugged and veteran eleven, fought the Presidents of Washington and Jefferson to a standstill for three periods in the game at Washington, only to see their hopes go glimmering in the last quarter, when the powerful W. & J. scored two touchdowns.

It was a fighting Wesleyan team that went down to defeat. Before the game was over, Wesleyan lost A. Bachtel, Beveridge, Fordyce, and Edmundson due to injuries.

Ray Hadd, making his first appearance in a Wesleyan uniform, was the outstanding defensive man for the Bobcats. Substituting for Fordyce who was injured, Ray smeared the opposition for numerous losses.

The Bobcats, never losing their characteristic fight, unleashed a great drive in the closing minutes of the game in a desperate effort to score but were halted by an intercepted pass.

Pioneers Upset the Dope, Tie Wesleyan 27-27

On November 5th, the Glenville Pioneers came to Buckhannon and gave the over-confident Bobcats the surprise of the season. Wesleyan, picked to win by two or three touchdowns, piled up a fourteen point lead in the first half, and nobody was surprised. But the visitors came back strong in the last two quarters. They tied the score early in the fourth period, and played the 'Cats on even terms until the final whistle. The final score was Wesleyan 27—Glenville 27, the most outstanding upset of Wesleyan's schedule for 1932.

The good weather and the natural spirit of rivalry between the two schools brought out one of the best crowds of the season.

In the long run, this shaking up probably did the Bobcats more good than harm. It prevented any epidemic of "cockiness" from breaking out in the squad and taught them not to regard a less famous foe, especially Glenville, as a set-up. As a financial result, the game next fall will probably draw twice the usual number of spectators. Look out Glenville!

NICK GIANTONIO

Nick is what a coach calls a smart football player. He has proved this by his ability to take care of himself and to take advantage of the weaknesses shown by the opponent ends and halfbacks. He has played superior ball all season, making several all-opponent and all-conference teams. He is a Junior.

TOM BLONDIN

Tom has everything it takes to be a great guard, and he used every bit of his ability. He is one of the best guards ever to play on a Bobcat team—always rough and ready. Opponents rejoice that he graduates in June.

Wesleyan Wins Over Dukes from Pittsburgh 7 to 6

JOSEPH HALL

"Joe" was a very valuable man in the backfield. His ability to punt helped Wesleyan out of danger when threatened by the opposing team. "Joe" has one more year of varsity competition, and we are expecting big things of him.

ARTHUR BACHTEL

"Art" and his educated toe have won more than one game. His record in placement kicks is one of the best records in the United States. His generalship and leadership proved to be a big advantage for Wesleyan. His sure defensive play and ball carrying was a feature throughout the season.

A powerful Wesleyan team which refused to respect the highly touted mastery of the Dukes, fought its way to victory at Forbes Field in a night game. It was the second time in succession that the Bobcats have won from the Dukes, and there was not a doubt in the minds of the spectators that the best team won.

It was during the first period that both teams scored. From then to the close of the game, it was a hard, close battle, with Wesleyan having the upper hand. It was also during this eventful first period that Howard Bachtel, little quarterback, was injured while making one of those hard, driving tackles that he is noted for. The Dukes scored the first touchdown of the game on a blocked punt early in the first quarter.

It was only a few minutes after the Duke marker that Paul Beveridge changed the entire complexion of the game when he intercepted a pass and ran 83 yards for a touchdown. Art Bachtel again used his now famous toe to boot the ball across the bar for the winning point.

From then on, every man on the Wesleyan team played unbeatable football. They threatened the Duke goal line several times and stopped every rally that the Dukes could make. Orville Edmondson and Tom Blondin were the outstanding men in the forward wall. Many times they broke through the Duke line and smeared the ball carrier for a loss.

Joe Hall and Red Sullivan, the Duke ace, put up a fine kicking duel.

Wesleyan's most dangerous threat to score during the latter part of the game came late in the last period when Spears intercepted Deluca's last toss and almost broke away for a score. Wesleyan kept to line plays and the game ended with the ball in Wesleyan's possession at midfield.

DeCarbo was easily the outstanding star for Duquesne. He is one of the finest linemen in Eastern college circles.

SAM MAZZIE

Sam is another Clarksburg boy who came to Wesleyan and made good with "Cebe" Ross and his Bobcats. He graduates this year, and goes back to Clarksburg to coach and teach in one of the schools there. His fine playing at a guard position at Wesleyan was ever "a thorn in the side" of the opposition.

GEORGE GREER

George came all the way from Northern New Jersey to cast his lot with Wesleyan's football playing Bobcats. Wesleyanites are glad he came. George plays a guard position, is only a Sophomore, and is one of the best built men on the squad. You will hear a lot more about him in the next two years.

Army Battles Hard to Win Over Wesleyan Bobcats

CLARK HULL

Clark has proved himself worthy of the Wesleyan "W" for the third time. At fullback, this man has special ability in punting, running the ball, and backing up the line. He will be back next year.

PAUL BEVERIDGE

"Bev's" hard luck stayed with him this year again, but did not keep him from making an enviable record. When his condition would permit, he played brilliant football. Among other things, he will long be remembered for his spectacular run against Duquense in '32.

Refusing to remember that they were the decided underdogs, and had only an outside chance of making the game even interesting for a powerful Army eleven, a fighting Bobcat team took everything that the Cadets had to offer on the offensive, and put on a little of the same brand of ball themselves to advance the ball to Army territory several times.

The game was played on a sloppy gridiron, ankle deep in mud and most of the time in a blinding rainstorm. Offensive thrusts, almost impossible under the conditions were reverted to punts between Joe Hall of the Bobcats and Buckler of the Army.

Army got the field break of the game near the end of the half when Frenzel, in the Army backfield for Buckler, recovered a fumble by "How" Bachtel on the Wesleyan forty-seven yard stripe.

Twice the powerful forward wall of the Army pushed the Bobcats back to their own twenty-five and a first down, but an inspired Bobcat, aided by a slippery ball and some marvelous clean tackles, withstood the attack. The half ended scoreless.

The rain had subsided before the third quarter was over, and an Army team, truly surprised at the great strength of the little West Virginia eleven, tried desperately to score. Vidal took a pass from Fields and ran 75 yards for the only touchdown of the game.

EDWARD HOWELL

"Stretch" broke into the line-up after the first two games, and from then on, he proved himself to "Cebe" Ross and stayed there for the rest of the season. "Stretch" became a good passer, and one of the toughest spots on the team. He is good fullback material.

HOWARD BACHTEL

Forrest, Art, and now "How". Wesleyan was surely lucky in getting that Bachtel family started to school here. Aside from his blocking services, "How" has been one of the best ground gainers on the squad this year. He is a Junior and undoubtedly will be one of Wesleyan's outstanding backs next year.

Outstanding for the Army team was Vidal, halfback, and Summerfelt, husky linesman. The real feature of the game was the punting duel between Joe Hall and Buckler of the Army.

During the season, Army snowed under Harvard with a 46-0 rout, and then proceeded to bowl over Yale by a 19-0 score.

Bobcats Win Over Bethany College, 39-6

CHARLES WHITE

Wesleyan folks are generally agreed that "Charlie" White is one of the most promising athletes that "Cebe" has on the squad. "Charlie" plays an end position where he specializes in pass receiving. He has two more years in which to thwart the plans of ambitious opponents.

WENTZ FORDYCE

"Doe" or "Buckboard" was the biggest man on the eleven; and how he stopped them at the line of scrimmage. His strength and ability to keep his feet were among his best qualities. "Doe" played a tackle position, and few were the plays that went through his territory. He is a Senior.

West Virginia Wesleyan's fighting Bobcats clawed their way through the Bison line for an easy victory October 8th, at the Buckhannon field. The Bethany College team fought a hard, losing fight. They were outclassed in every respect. Wesleyan gathered all her points in the first three periods. The game was full of thrills for the spectators. Long runs accounted for most of the scoring.

Howard Bachtel made the longest run of the game with a 47-yard gallop for a touchdown. Art Bachtel scored twice on runs of 25 and 15 yards respectively. Siandru, Hull and Coleman also scored touchdowns for Wesleyan.

Bethany scored once as the result of a Wesleyan fumble. The final score was Wesleyan 39, Bethany 6.

Wesleyan scored once on a safety.

The entire Wesleyan squad was clicking well. Art Bachtel was outstanding. The Bethany attack was led by McGee and Moffet, the passing combination that scored the lone touchdown for the Bisons.

Wesleyan Wins Decisive Game From Georgetown

Seemingly in a vengeful mood after a listless 21-21 tie game with Glenville Pioneers at their own den, the Wesleyan Bobcats journeyed to Washington, D. C., to claw their way to a 14-0 decisive victory over Georgetown's eleven. From the opening whistle, it was evident that the Bobcats meant business, and a husky Hoyas team was forced on the defensive.

The entire first half was characterized by well-placed punts and frequent fumbles on both sides.

Wesleyan scored first when Rine fell on a Hoya fumble across the goal line. A. Bachtel kicked the placement. After a long pass from Hall to Spears, the 'Cats scored again on a lateral from Howell to A. Bachtel. A. Bachtel again kicked the placement.

Once in the third quarter, the big Georgetown team buckled down and seemed determined to fight off the scrappy Bobcats. After taking the ball on downs, they marched down the field in a series of long gains. But Wesleyan snapped out of it, threw the Hoyas backs for repeated losses until the danger was over, finally scoring a touchdown on a fumble by the Georgetown quarterback.

ALTON WHOLF

"Bud" has completed four years of service to Wesleyan's football team, and will graduate in June. He has played at either an end or center position in most of the Bobcat scraps since '29. His 185 pounds have been the "Waterloo" of many embryo touchdowns conjured by Wesleyan's opponents.

EDISON RINE

"Etts" came to Wesleyan from the University at the start of his Sophomore year, and immediately proved himself one of the toughest ends on the squad. He has one more season in which to climax his fine football career. West Virginia's loss has been Wesleyan's gain.

Mountaineers Win Exciting Battle at Morgantown

CLEMENT SIANDRU

"Si" overcame his injured knee and played good football throughout the year. We will remember "Si" because of his willingness to try under any conditions. He is a good all-around half-back and has proved himself worthy of the Wesleyan "W". He is a Senior.

ARCHIE SNYDER

Archie came to Wesleyan from Weston High School, where his playing had earned him a place on the all-state team. He has fulfilled our fondest expectations. Opposing backs have repeatedly learned the folly of running plays around Archie's end. Next year, he will be back at his position as a Senior.

The West Virginia Mountaineers, respected gridiron foes for the past 30 years, once again stopped a tired but determined Bobcat eleven at the Mountaineer Stadium. The final score was 14-0. The 14 points rolled up by the Mountaineers in no way indicated the relative strength of the two elevens. The Bobcats fought the boys from the University on even terms. Never losing their fight and trying to overcome the 7 point lead they forced the Mountaineers back to their own goal when "How" Bachtel took a pass from Beveridge and, reversing his field, ran 51 yards to the 4-yard line. Here the Bobcat threat was converted into a Mountaineer touchdown when Marker snared a Wesleyan pass on his own two-yard line and raced 98 for a touchdown and victory.

Wesleyan's backfield was forced to play defensive ball until that final spurt at the close of the game when Beveridge's appearance added new life to throw a justified scare into the Mountaineers.

Bobcats Win Easily Over Salem College, 14-0

A somewhat handicapped Bobcat team won a listless game from a fighting Tiger eleven at the College Field here. Play on both sides was marked by frequent fumbles and inconsistent offensive maneuvers.

In the first five minutes of play the Bobcats served notice on the Salem team that as far as they were concerned it was just another ball game.

The Bobcat team played mediocre football, showed signs of a hard Duquesne game a week ago, and were visibly weakened by the absence of Blondin and H. Bachtel.

Outstanding for the Bobcats on the line were Edmundson, Giantonio, and Fordyce. The outstanding backfield men were A. Bachtel and Clark Hull. The Salem team played aggressive football throughout the game.

The final score was Wesleyan 14, Salem 0.

PAUL POWELL

"Chuff" had a mean assignment of playing either guard or tackle as the occasion might demand. Last year he was the only Freshman to make his letter. He is heavy and strong. If you watch Wesleyan's line in '33 and '34, you will see a lot of Powell.

MARION SAUNDERS

"Shot" is the biggest player on the Bobcat squad. He is not too big to handle himself well, but, on the contrary, uses every pound of his weight to the best advantage. He is one of Cebe's best tackles. You will see a lot of Saunders next fall, too.

Marshall Wins From Wesleyan By 22-0 Score

CHARLES COLEMAN

"Charlie", too, has played his last year of football for Wesleyan. Although not a regular he could always be depended upon when needed. He played his best games against Salem and Bethany, scoring a touchdown in each game. He played quarterback, and his greatest asset was his ability to call good plays and to call them promptly.

FRANCIS LEWIS

"Loppy" was one of the strongest boys in the line. He, too, has completed four years of Wesleyan football and will graduate in June. He played a tackle position where he consistently broke up the plays that came his way.

Plainly showing signs of a terrific schedule and displaying a complete reversal of form as compared to previous games, the war-worn Bobcat was completely outplayed in their last game of the 1932 season.

Opening up their characteristic drive, the Bobcats marched up the field, and it looked just like another game, but something snapped, and the Bobcat attack completely collapsed, both offensively and defensively. From then on, the game was Marshall's.

Wesleyan had one real scoring chance—and that on the first three plays after the kickoff, but the Bobcat pass snatchers were completely off form and missed several flat passes in open territory.

The Seth flash, Zontini, was the nemesis of the demoralized Bobcats. He was truly the big Herdsman in the Herd attack this year.

Football Summary

It seems to be a characteristic of Wesleyan to defeat, or at least scare, some one of the highly touted teams of the East each year. Last year it was the Navy; this year it was the Army. The team this year was not marked by any individual star, but rather by the general efficiency of each player on the squad. The average as to games won and lost in the 1932 season was exactly .500—winning four, losing four, and tying one.

Basketball

Wesleyan had a successful basketball season as everybody expected with "Cebe" Ross at the helm and an abundance of experienced material to select from. They fought through their stiff schedule winning seven in fifteen games. Teams as a whole throughout the state were unusually good this year, and it took a good team to win half the games on its schedule. Wesleyan was handicapped at the pivot position. None of the boys were tall enough to consistently get the tip-off. The guard combination of Roselle and Giantonio was one of the strongest features of the 'Cat line-up.

Baseball

Under the skillful direction of Coach "Cebe" Ross, the Bobcat baseball team enjoyed a very successful season, winning six of eight games. The games lost were to Salem College, at Salem; and to Fairmont College, at Fairmont. The weather was an annoying handicap in the '32 season, several games being cancelled because of rain.

Beveridge, Mazzie, and Smallridge made up the pitching staff, while Art Bachtel did most of the work behind the bat.

Tennis

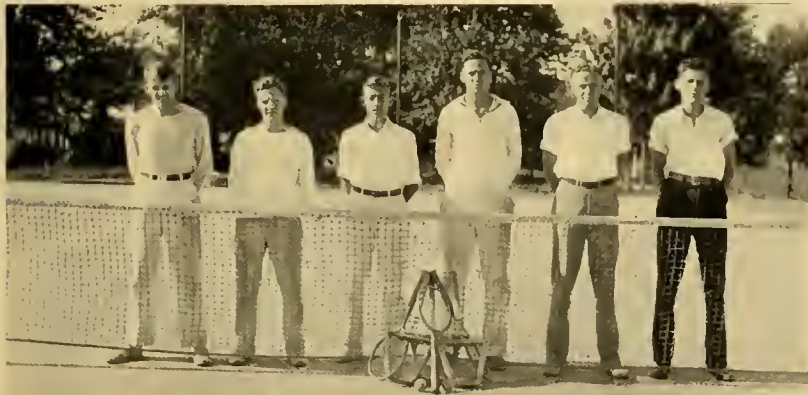

Tennis has become one of the most popular minor sports on Wesleyan's campus. When the weather permits, the courts are continuously occupied from dawn until dark.

The varsity team, playing under the serious handicap of being without a coach, did not measure up to their usual successful schedule in the '32 matches. With the return of Professor W. A. Hallam, who will again coach the team, the 1933 season is expected to be much more successful.

The letter men of the 1932 squad are: Jim Furbee, Zaner Post, Joe Oldaker, Delmar Moore, Dick Rutherford, and Arthur Frazer, Manager. Clifford Battles and Pete Wray, not in the picture, were also letter men.

Track and Field

Reorganization of a Wesleyan track and field team is being carried on by Coach "Art" Simons. The student body made an active response to his call for team candidates, and some very good material has developed. The track and field events have shown indications of becoming one of the most popular athletic activities on the campus as interest increases each year.

The most outstanding feature of the 1932 team was the work in the weight department by Sharp and Saunders.

This year the Student Council experienced one of the most successful seasons in its history. Co-operation was manifest on all occasions, and a desire to do his best was shown by every Council member. More awards were given this year for extra-curricular activities than ever before. The Lyceum Course maintained its high standard of entertainment by bringing several noted musical organizations and speakers to Wesleyan.

The biggest achievement of the Council this year was the introduction of a co-operative plan for reducing the expenses of the Spring dances. This plan was well accepted by the sororities and fraternities.

The Council also sent two delegates to the Mid-Atlantic Convention of the National Student Federation of America which was held in Newark, Delaware. Mr. Parrish and Mr. Spidell, who represented Wesleyan came back with many new ideas for the improvement of the Council.

Haught Literary Society

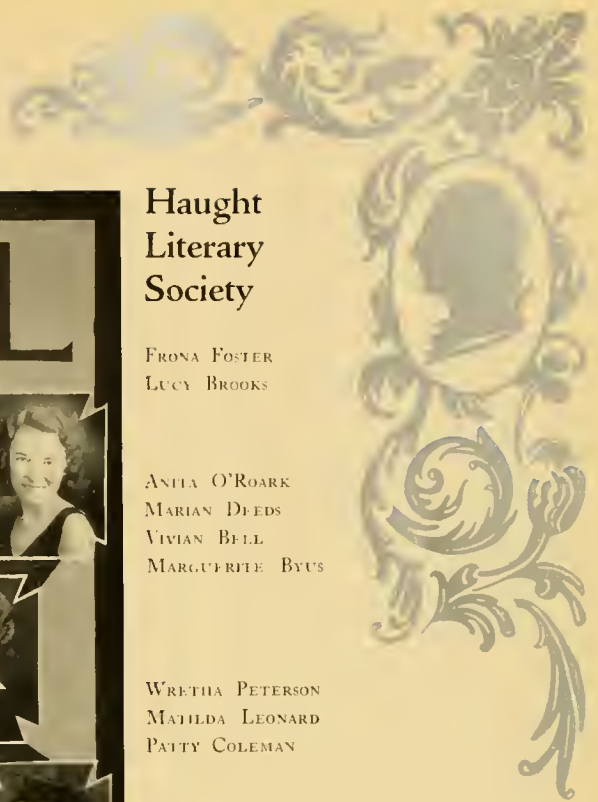

Haught Literary Club was organized on Wesleyan's campus in 1924 in honor of its patron, Dr. Thomas W. Haught. It was organized for the purpose of recognizing Wesleyan Women in literary attainments, and to develop in them an appreciation of literature, both classical and modern. The highest standards in intellectual interests are cultivated and promoted.

Membership in the organization is limited to sixteen active members, the election being made by one of two methods as follows: through replacement by an outgoing Senior who proposes an undergraduate to take her place; or through direct election by the unanimous vote of the club.

Each year there are far more membership applicants than can be taken into the Society because of its limited membership rule. Thus because of the desirability and difficulty in having one's name on the Haught Literary roll, members justly covet this honor. This Society attracts girls of the most outstanding ability and character on the campus.

The entire school takes keen interest in the many worthwhile projects of this organization. Besides its literary activities, the Society frequently sponsors social functions of various natures.

The Society is grateful to Dr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Haught for their lasting and devoted interest.

The Wesleyan Play Shop is one of the most popular organizations on the campus. It is devoted to the development of dramatic talent. Aspirants to membership in this organization are required to perform four apprenticeships, one of which must be a part in a play before being initiated.

Members receive training in acting and directing as well as an opportunity to take part in plays. This year, the Play Shop produced two major plays, "The Royal Family", a feature of the lyceum, and "The Ghost Train", the Commencement play. Both productions were successful in every respect.

To Mrs. C. Edmund Neil, who directed the plays, goes much of the credit for their popularity. She took over the task of supervising the Play Shop when she became Professor of Speech last fall, and has since directed its activities in a very creditable manner. Wesleyan is fortunate in having such a talented and versatile lady in its faculty.

In spite of the initiation restrictions, the membership in this organization grows each year until at the present time, it has more members than any other single organization on the campus. The apprenticeships allow only the best talent to become full fledged members.

With the large and talented membership, and encouraged by this year's successes, the Play Shop is looking forward to nineteen thirty-three and thirty-four as the biggest year in its history.

Tubby, Stretch, Art, and Sam; no lack of football material in that quartet—The Sophomore contribution to the beauty contest; Fritzie, Goldie, Bizzy, and Helen (Bob was just driving the car.)—A “pal” picture of Rena, Jo, Janet, Adaline, and Ruth—Shuman and Freda; this has gone a little farther than simply pals—John Doe “Electric Shop” Fordyce—Old favorites; Hilda and Red—View down the walk from the Ladies’ Hall—Martha and Zella looking for Paul and Stickley—Rare picture; the cheer leaders with their mouths closed; Rosco, Helen, Bill, Laura Jean, and Nick—Mrs. Mary Lou—Marlinton’s contribution; Gin and Jerry—Mrs. Miller again with “Tim”—And not a single one of this group graduates; looks like another big year for Wesleyan, they are: Martha, Jerry, Rhoda, Zella, Bizzy, Coda, Nina, and Freda—Tom Blondin, Bobcat supreme—More beauty winners, this time from the Freshman class; from east to west: Laura Jean, Rhoda, Louise, Martha, and Jim Law, who, by the way, was not formally elected to the position he occupies there—“How”, one of the blocking Bachtels.

Those two football players are two of Wesleyan's best ends; Archie and Spears—The Senior beauties chauffeured by Paul Miles, they are: Frona, Carrie, Martha and Grace—Up the river with Eleanor, Adrian, Fay, and Nina—"Duke" poses between halves—Jack, Harry, and Art—Edith, Vera, Eleanor, Dorothy, Ethel, and Jo were up the river, too—Professor Laz-enby probably went along to keep them in line—Miss Fritzi—Mike and Shuman resting up for a trip to the Science Hall—Don't think that it wasn't a job getting this outfit quiet long enough to take a picture; Helen, Milly, and Tillie—Tim goes in for the mannish fad—Rosey looks determined to get a touchdown—The contest winners from the Junior class; Freda, Gin Rexrode, Virginia White, and Tillie—The Senior member of the blocking Bachtel firm; this time it's Art.

A LESSON IN RELATIVE COSTS

FOR THE STUDENT WHO SETS ASIDE PREJUDICE IN FAVOR OF FACTS

If one accepts 1913 prices as a norm and compares today's prices with them, some rather startling facts emerge. Today's living costs are still nearly 40 per cent higher than in 1913—BUT today's domestic electric costs are more than 33 per cent lower than they were in 1913. Basis figures on living and electric costs are readily available from official government reports. Electric costs have declined substantially throughout the past twenty year period.
